

Logic, Limits, Contingency: A Critical Digital Spring School

March 27-30 2023 at Freie Universität Berlin.

Remaining places for PhD researcher participants are limited. Please email l.drury@fu-berlin.de to register.

The spring school creates a forum for critical engagement with the aesthetic, social, and theoretical dimensions of digital media and methods. As it is clear that digital research approaches transgress the disciplinary lines that separate the arts, sciences, and humanities, this spring school brings scholars together to address that fact directly. The spring school thus incorporates, for example, mathematical approaches to time and human societies, artistic approaches to archives, humanistic research, and concepts of history, and humanities approaches to data, aesthetics, and exhibition. Over the course of four days, PhD researchers can explore how digital innovation can upgrade their own projects-in-development. Moreover, the interdisciplinary spring school also has the potential to innovate digital research methods in turn.

The Spring School co-organizers are Lindsey Drury, Tony Fisher (LAHP), Dennis Mischke, Ramona Mosse, and Marcus Weber, as well as Thematic Einstein Forum organisational team.

The forum is organized within the framework of the Berlin Mathematics Research Center MATH+ in collaboration with the EXC 2020 “Temporal Communities” and supported by the Einstein Foundation Berlin. We are committed to fostering an atmosphere of respect, collegiality, and sensitivity. Please read our MATH+ Collegiality Statement.

– Draft Programme –

Monday. PhD Project Presentations (27.03.2023)

Short presentations of PhD research projects & discussion in a series of panels.

Tuesday. Formal Logics and their Limits (28.03.2023) Morning Lecture

Natasa Conrad (Zuse Institute Berlin)

Case Studies / Critical Labs

Daniil Skorinkin (Universität Potsdam)

Marcus Weber (Zuse Institute Berlin)

UK National Archives

Wednesday. Interoperability & Archives (29.03.2023) Morning Lecture

Amalia Levi (The Heritedge Foundation) (online)

Case Studies / Critical Labs

UK National Archives

Christopher Ohge (University of London)

Annette Jael Lehmann & metaLAB (Freie Universität Berlin / Harvard University)

Magda Romanska (Emerson College)

Thursday. Representation & Human Contingency (30.03.2023) Morning Lecture

Kate Elswit (Royal Central School of Speech)

Case Studies / Critical Labs

Christian Stein, Moritz Moser, Valentin Hanau, Johannes Berger (Humboldt Universität, gamelab.berlin)
