

International visibility

The diversity of the Cluster's publishers and publication formats testifies to the resonance of our scholarship for a wide range of audiences.

Digital journal (open access)

Articulations hosts peer-reviewed contributions that document and network our scholarship across disciplines and research activities. The platform facilitates connectivity and cross-sectionality in scholarly publishing.

Sharing Time Public Wor(l)ds

Publication strategy

Booklet series (open access)

con-stel-la-tions, a project of EXC 2020's hub for collaborative and transdisciplinary projects with partner institutions, provides online and print documentation of the Cluster's activities at the intersection of artistic and academic research and practice.

Sustainable scholarly publishing

EXC 2020 researchers receive professional counselling from our publication manager at every stage of their publication projects, including support on questions of open access, dissemination and on self-archiving in the institutional repository Refubium.